

St. Paul Lutheran Church

3 Days of Prayer

Repentance, Petition, Vision

January 5, 6 and 7

An invitation to pray

You and I live in this world with Christ as our Lord and Champion. Until He returns or we die, this life is a battle between God and Satan... and our lives are the torn-up turf of the battlefield. We have no reason to fear or retreat and every reason to confidently call on our Lord in prayer. I invite you, therefore, to begin 2020 in three days of prayer with me, calling on our gracious Heavenly Father. For three days, January 5, 6 and 7, join our congregation and thousands of others around the world from our association (Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ) for intentional prayer for ourselves, our churches, and our world. Each day there is a theme to take to our Lord in prayer. God is knocking on your heart... and He is already listening...Let's pray.

January 5 – Day One: Repentance

Psalm 130

“Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord!

² O Lord, hear my voice!

Let your ears be attentive

to the voice of my pleas for mercy!

³ *If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could stand?*

⁴ *But with you there is forgiveness,
that you may be feared.*

⁵ *I wait for the Lord, my soul waits,
and in his word I hope;*

⁶ *my soul waits for the Lord
more than watchmen for the morning,
more than watchmen for the morning.*

⁷ *O Israel, hope in the Lord!
For with the Lord there is steadfast love,
and with him is plentiful redemption.*

⁸ *And he will redeem Israel
from all her iniquities.”*

Prayer based on Psalm 130

Gracious Lord, thank you for all your mercy to me throughout this passing year. Though I daily stray from you and fail to obediently serve you in all my thoughts, words, and deeds, you do not abandon me and still you call me your beloved child. Thank you! Search the depths of my soul and cleanse me of all that inhibits true obedience to your Word. Throughout the new year, cause me not to rush rashly ahead in life but rather to wait upon you for guidance and direction, knowing that you possess all wisdom and knowledge. All this I ask in the name of Jesus, your Son, my Savior. Amen.

Prayer for Priorities:

Precious Father, you have claimed us and said, 'You shall have no other Gods before me.' Too often we honor other claims and put other relationships above you. Our priorities end up in other things and in other places and not with you where they belong. Help us, Dear Lord; change our ways. Give us wisdom, strength, and courage to trust you and to stand up and confess you as Lord and Master of our lives and our families. Guide us Jesus, to walk in your ways, keeping you before us and before everything else that seeks to separate us from you. When we are tempted to give ourselves to our own projects, travels, or to athletic events, let us come to your house to worship you, give us joy in our hearts and the desire to come hear your living Word and to call on you in prayer, praise, and thanksgiving. When we are too weary to seek you, stir our hearts to come to you so that we may receive the refreshment and spiritual healing we so desperately need. Thy kingdom come Lord, thy will be done; take me to yourself now and every day... that mine may be an example of a life hidden in you. In the name of Jesus we pray, Amen.

Other prayer topics for this day:

impatience

addictions

anger

materialism/idol worship/undisciplined use of money

lack of respect (for God and others)

hectic pace of life/time management

January 6 – Day two: Petition

Read and pray using Psalm 119

Psalm 119:10, 44-50,105

“With my whole heart I seek you;

let me not wander from your commandments!

⁴⁹*Remember your word to your servant,*

in which you have made me hope.

⁵⁰*This is my comfort in my affliction,*

that your promise gives me life.

*Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light to my path.”*

A prayer based on Psalm 119

O Lord, Father in Heaven,
Guide me.
Mold me.
Form me.
Turn me.
Teach me.
Change me.
Get hold of me.
Make me yours.
Show me your Way.
All day let that Way be before me.
In every thought, breath and action
let it be the beacon, the guide, the control,
the path of my life.
Help me follow your Way
to the very end of my days.
May I never stop searching and desiring your Law.
Thank you for putting me here in your hands.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

Read and pray Psalm 117

Psalm 117

“Praise the LORD, all nations!

Extol him, all peoples!

² For great is his steadfast love toward us,

and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever.

Praise the Lord!”

January 7 – Day 3: Vision

The vision God has given us is that St. Paul Lutheran will be a congregation that engages people in order to help more families follow Jesus.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

“Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ⁵ You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶ And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. ⁷ You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. ⁸ You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. ⁹ You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.”

Psalm 145:1-7

- “I will extol you, my God and King,
and bless your name forever and ever.*
- ² Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever.
- ³ *Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised,
and his greatness is unsearchable.*
- ⁴ *One generation shall commend your works to another,
and shall declare your mighty acts.*
- ⁵ *On the glorious splendor of your majesty,
and on your wondrous works, I will meditate.*
- ⁶ *They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds,
and I will declare your greatness.*
- ⁷ *They shall pour forth the fame of your abundant goodness
and shall sing aloud of your righteousness.”*

Malachi 4:2, 5-6

“But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall...”

⁵ “Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of the Lord comes. ⁶ And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a decree of utter destruction.”

Luke 1:16-17

“And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God, ¹⁷ and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared.”

Ephesians 5:20-24, 25, 6:4

“...giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ. ²² Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³ For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior... ²⁵ Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her...”

“^{6.4} Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.”

III John 4

“I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.”

Prayer:

Gracious and almighty Father, in your Son Jesus you freely give forgiveness, life and salvation to me and to all those with ears to hear. Thank you! Your blueprint, Your design for redeeming the world and making disciples starts with the family even with my family. Give men and women ears to hear this calling; give me ears to hear it. Establish and strengthen husband and wife under Christ. Guide parents as the key teachers for their children. Inspire fathers and mothers to read the Bible, teach the catechism, and pray with their families at home and when away. For persons who are single, sustain them in faith and in purity. Lead me and our congregation to engage people wherever they are with the love and truth of Jesus Christ. Keep the leaders of our congregation disciplined and focused on our vision to help more families follow You; for Your glory and in Your name I pray. Amen.

Additional petitions:

- That at least 70% of our people would mature in their relationship with the Lord and each other through participation in a healthy small group. (Ephesians 4:13-16)
- That the Lord would change our ministry and witness in such a way that each year at least thirty-six (36) adults (that's three per month) would be baptized or return to Christ through our congregation.

...into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray; trusting in your mercy, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
